IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

MAIL STOP NON-FEE AMENDMENT (PATENTS)

Applicant: BULLOCK, Robert Lee
Application's Title: RAILROAD FREIGHT CAR TRUCK SUSPENSION etc.
Serial No.: 10/763,496
Filed: 01/23/2004
Group Art Unit: 3617 Examiner: LE, Mark T.
Docket No.: BUL-031

COMMENTS UPON ALLOWANCE OF ALL THE CLAIMS

Commissioner for Patents
P. O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

This is in response to the Notice of Allowance and Notice of Allowability mailed 15 August 2004.

As stated in the Examiner's "Reason for Allowance" the "... prior art taken singly (sic) or in combination, does not suggest the jaw (sic) stabilizing means on a car truck" as claimed. The inadvertent typographical errors are noted.

Applicant has reviewed the Scheffel, Jones, Goding, Travilla and Buckwalter references cited by the Examiner in the Form-892 attached to the office action. It is noted that the key elements of interest in each of the references have been alluded to in applicant's specification, and he has distinguished his claimed yaw stabilizing system over relatively recent, commercially significant, references teaching yaw stabilizing systems.

Respectfully submitted,

Alfred D. Lobo (Reg. No. 24,109)
